THE OLD JAIL

Listed on the Florida & National Register of Haunted Places, the Old Jail was built in 1891 and housed prisoners for over 60 years. It has been the site of countless supernatural occurrences. Many criminals met their maker here. A shiv in the back or a hangman's noose ended numerous lives. Visitors to the Old Jail have experienced cold spots, strange odors, loud banging noises, orbs of light and even apparitions.

THE ST. AUGUSTINE LIGHTHOUSE GROUNDS

The Lighthouse has a long history of paranormal activity. Visitors and employees have seen moving shadows and have heard voices and unexplained noises. In 1870 the daughters of Hezekiah Pittee, Superintendent of Lighthouse Construction, drowned in a tragic accident and are now believed to haunt the Lighthouse grounds.
